

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Fingerprint Analysis

Setup:

- ◆ Ink pads
- ◆ White paper
- ◆ Magnifying glasses
- ◆ Sample fingerprint cards

Instructions:

- ◆ Each child creates their fingerprint using the ink pad and paper.
- ◆ Compare their fingerprints to sample cards to identify patterns (loops, whorls, arches).
- ◆ Kids try to match fingerprints to a “mystery” print.

Tips:

- ◆ Create an official “Fingerprint Analysis” station with a sign.
- ◆ Provide detective badges to kids after they complete the activity.

Laser Obstacle Course

Setup:

- ◆ Red string or crepe paper
- ◆ Tape
- ◆ A hallway or open space

Instructions:

- ◆ Tape the red string across a hallway or room, creating a “laser” maze.
- ◆ Kids must navigate through the course without touching the “lasers.”
- ◆ Time each child to see who can complete the course the fastest.

Tips:

- ◆ Make the course more challenging by adding more strings at different heights.
- ◆ Provide “Spy Passports” with stamps for successfully completing the course.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Code Breaking

Setup:

- ◆ Printable codes or ciphers (Caesar cipher, number substitution, etc.)
- ◆ Pencils and paper

Instructions:

- ◆ Provide each child with a coded message.
- ◆ Kids use the provided cipher key to decode the message.
- ◆ The first to crack the code and reveal the message wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Create messages that lead to the next activity or clue.
- ◆ Offer hints if kids are struggling to solve the codes.

Spy Gadget Crafting

Setup:

- ◆ Empty cardboard tubes, duct tape, and construction paper
- ◆ Markers, stickers, and other decorations
- ◆ Small mirrors (for periscopes)

Instructions:

- ◆ Kids design and create their own spy gadgets, like periscopes or binoculars.
- ◆ Allow them to decorate and personalize their gadgets.
- ◆ Use the gadgets during other activities, like observation games.

Tips:

- ◆ Provide examples or templates to inspire creativity.
- ◆ Supervise closely if using scissors or small parts.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Disguise Challenge

Setup:

- ◆ Hats, glasses, wigs, fake mustaches
- ◆ Mirrors
- ◆ A camera or phone (optional for taking pictures)

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up a disguise station with various costume items.
- ◆ Kids create their own spy disguises.
- ◆ Have a mini fashion show where each child shows off their disguise.

Tips:

- ◆ Take pictures of each child in their disguise for them to take home.
- ◆ Offer a prize for the most creative or convincing disguise.

Mission Impossible Obstacle Course

Setup:

- ◆ Cones, ropes, and hula hoops (to create obstacles)
- ◆ Spy-themed props (like “bombs” made from foam balls)
- ◆ Timer or stopwatch

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up an obstacle course with various challenges (crawling under ropes, dodging obstacles, etc.).
- ◆ Kids complete the course as quickly as possible while avoiding “hazards.”
- ◆ The fastest spy wins the mission.

Tips:

- ◆ Add “missions” like retrieving a secret item hidden in the course.
- ◆ Adjust the difficulty based on the age group.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Spy Training

Setup:

- ◆ Printable certificates
- ◆ Spy-themed activities (like balancing, stealth walking, and observation tasks)
- ◆ Cones or markers (for training stations)

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up different training stations where kids practice spy skills.
- ◆ Each station focuses on a different skill, like balance or stealth.
- ◆ After completing the training, give each child a "Certified Spy" certificate.

Tips:

- ◆ Incorporate elements from real spy training, like agility drills or memory games.
- ◆ Keep the atmosphere fun and light-hearted, emphasizing teamwork.

Secret Agent Scavenger Hunt

Setup:

- ◆ List of spy-themed items or clues
- ◆ Spy bags or pouches (for collecting items)
- ◆ Hidden items (like toy gadgets, secret notes, or clues)

Instructions:

- ◆ Hide spy-themed items around the party area.
- ◆ Give each child a list of items to find.
- ◆ The first child to find all the items on their list wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Make the clues more challenging by using riddles or codes.
- ◆ Offer small prizes for everyone who completes the hunt.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Top Secret Memory Game

Setup:

- ◆ Spy-themed cards (pairs with matching pictures)
- ◆ A table or flat surface

Instructions:

- ◆ Place all the cards face down on a table.
- ◆ Kids take turns flipping over two cards, trying to find matching pairs.
- ◆ The child with the most pairs at the end wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Create cards with different spy gadgets, agents, or villains.
- ◆ Offer a small prize for the best memory.

Invisible Ink Messages

Setup:

- ◆ Lemon juice, Q-tips, and white paper
- ◆ Heat source (like a hairdryer or light bulb)
- ◆ Paintbrushes (for revealing messages)

Instructions:

- ◆ Kids write secret messages using lemon juice and Q-tips.
- ◆ Allow the messages to dry.
- ◆ Reveal the messages by heating the paper with a light bulb or hairdryer.

Tips:

- ◆ Supervise closely when using the heat source.
- ◆ Provide envelopes so kids can send their messages home.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Safe Cracking

Setup:

- ◆ Combination locks or small safes
- ◆ Clues or hints to the combinations
- ◆ Small prizes or candy inside the safes

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up small safes with combination locks.
- ◆ Give kids clues or hints to figure out the combinations.
- ◆ The first to crack the safe gets to keep the prize inside.

Tips:

- ◆ Use simple combinations for younger children.
- ◆ Make the clues part of a larger mystery to solve.

Agent Capture

Setup:

- ◆ Colored bandanas or armbands (to identify teams)
- ◆ A large open space
- ◆ A "base" for each team

Instructions:

- ◆ Divide kids into two teams, each with their own base.
- ◆ Teams try to capture the other team's "agent" (a hidden object or a team member).
- ◆ The first team to successfully capture the other team's agent and bring them back to their base wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Add obstacles or challenges along the way to make the game more exciting.
- ◆ Emphasize teamwork and strategy.

Game Setup, Instructions, and Tips

Spy Gadget Relay

Setup:

- ◆ Small objects or gadgets (like toy phones, flashlights, or binoculars)
- ◆ Cones or markers (to create relay stations)
- ◆ Stopwatch or timer

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up a relay course with multiple stations.
- ◆ Kids pass the spy gadget from one station to the next, completing tasks along the way.
- ◆ The team that completes the relay the fastest wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Make each station a different spy task, like decoding a message or defusing a “bomb.”
- ◆ Encourage teamwork by assigning specific roles to each team member.

Laser Grid Puzzle

Setup:

- ◆ Large printed grid or mat (with letters or numbers)
- ◆ Red string or tape (to create a “laser” grid)
- ◆ A small object to retrieve (like a key or a toy)

Instructions:

- ◆ Set up the grid with “lasers” (red string) crossing it.
- ◆ Kids must step on the correct squares to navigate through the grid without touching the “lasers.”
- ◆ The first to retrieve the object at the end of the grid wins.

Tips:

- ◆ • Provide hints or clues to help kids figure out the correct path.
- ◆ • Make it more challenging by adding more lasers or obstacles.

Spy Briefcase Puzzle

Setup:

- ◆ Small briefcases or boxes
- ◆ Puzzle pieces (that create a secret message or image)
- ◆ Locks (optional, to secure the briefcases)

Instructions:

- ◆ Divide kids into teams. Each team has a briefcase with puzzle pieces inside.
- ◆ Teams must solve the puzzle to reveal the secret message or image.
- ◆ The first team to complete their puzzle wins.

Tips:

- ◆ Lock the briefcases and provide clues to the combinations.
- ◆ Customize the puzzles with spy-themed images or messages.
